.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to grant an appropriate writ, more in the nature of Writ of Mandamus, declaring the action of the respondents in withholding allotment of students to the petitioner institute for admission into BLISC course for the academic year 2000-2001 and belatedly communicating the inspection report that there is no adequate accommodation in the present premises, after the allotment of students to other institutions is over, as arbitrary, illegal and unconstitutional and violative of principles of natural justice and issue a consequential direction to the respondents to allot the 20 candidates or admission into BLISC course in the petitioner institute for the academic year 2000-2001.

Counsel for the Petitioner:MR.J.JAYANAND

Counsel for the Respondent Nos.1 and 2:MR.K.RAMAKANTHA REDDY (Standing Counsel for Osmania University)

The Court made the following :

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V.V.S.RAO

WRIT PETITION NO.13619 OF 2000

ORDER:

The Central Institution of Library Science, Hyderabad, impugned the action of the Osmania University in not allotting students for admission to petitioner college to Bachelor of Library Science Course for the academic year 2000-2001. This Court admitted the Writ Petition on 27.7.2000 and by interim order dt.28.9.2000 in W.P.M.P.No.17351 of 2000 directed the respondent University to allot trainees to the petitioner institution within three weeks. In that view of the matter, the Writ Petition can be disposed of in terms of the interim order.

The Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
